

IGNITING INSPIRATION. BETTERING THE WORLD.

2017 GRAWEMEYER AWARDS LECTURE SERIES

The Grawemeyer Awards program at the University of Louisville pays tribute to the power of creative ideas, emphasizing the impact a single idea can have on the world. Prizes are awarded annually to inspire, honor and nurture achievements in music composition, education, ideas improving world order, religion and psychology. The winners visit Louisville each spring to discuss their award-winning ideas.

The lectures are free and open to the public. For additional details, visit grawemeyer.org.
