2020 NOMINEE FORM

You have been nominated for the Grawemeyer Award in Ideas Improving World Order described in the enclosed announcement. If you wish to be considered, please read the conditions stipulated in the announcement, complete the information below and confirm your acceptance of the award conditions by signing this form and returning it as indicated.

The undersigned Entrant(s), in submitting the nominated work, including any translations or abstracts ("Work") for the Grawemeyer Award in World Order ("Competition"), hereby acknowledges the following conditions:

1. Entrant(s) shall abide by the rules and procedures of the Competition as established by the University of Louisville. Entrant(s) agree to supply four copies of nominated work if nominator fails to do so.
2. Entrant(s) shall abide by the decision of the Grawemeyer Award for Ideas Improving World Order Committee and University of Louisville Board of Trustees, a decision which shall be accepted as final by Entrant.
3. Entrant(s) shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless the University of Louisville and its trustees, officers, employees or agents, including the Grawemeyer Award Committee members from the cost of any legal proceeding, claim or other loss sustained in connection with any dispute as to any authority over ownership or rights of Entrant(s) in the Work.
4. Entrant(s) shall participate, as appropriate, and cooperate in the production of any documentary film or other public relations or publicity matters related to the Competition, including the execution of any necessary releases and/or authorizations.
5. Entrant hereby grants permanent permission for the University of Louisville to use the title and excerpts from the Work and any media depicting their receipt and acceptance of the Award for library and archival purposes, and for the purpose of promoting the Grawemeyer Awards and their affiliation with the University of Louisville. The term "media" is understood to include, but not be limited to, audio and visual images and/or recordings of any format which depict the Entrant's visit to the campus[es] of the University of Louisville, the Awards presentation itself and any comments made by the Entrant as part of the campus visit[s] and the Awards festivities.
6. All physical materials submitted become the property of the University of Louisville.
7. Entrant agrees to accept responsibility of all shipping, and/or customs charges incurred (letter class air mail is suggested for foreign shipments as this normally avoids customs charges).
8. The winner of the Award will be announced after December 1st. The winner will be expected to come to Louisville during the following spring to make a formal presentation based on the winning idea and to receive the Award. This trip to Louisville is mandatory and failure to fulfill this requirement will result in forfeiture of the Award and the associated cash prize.
9. Entrant agrees and accepts that, consistent with the intent of H. Charles Grawemeyer, the Award will not be given posthumously. The Entrant must be living in order to receive the Award and must participate in the Award festivities referenced above in order to receive the Award and the associated cash prize.
10. Entrant agrees and accepts that the cash prize associated with the Award will be paid in full during the winner's visit to Louisville for Grawemeyer Award festivities. In the event that the Award is given to multiple recipients (such as co-authors), there is only one cash prize associated with the Award and said cash prize will be divided evenly amongst the recipients.
